When making arrangements for funerals, please contact the priest before contacting the funeral director. If you would like to have a Mass said, please take an envelope for that purpose, which you will find in the back of the church, fill out the appropriate information, enclose the stipend, and place it in the collection, or the box in the back of the church. Blessing of Articles takes place after each Mass on the first Sunday of the month.

A NOTE TO NEWCOMERS

WELCOME TO THE TRADITIONAL LATIN MASS, and to the unchanged Catholic Faith. The priests and parishioners of Most Holy Trinity Seminary reject the changes of Vatican II. They want to preserve the Roman Catholic Faith by maintaining everything which was taught and done by the Church prior to Vatican II. In order to receive the sacraments here, it is therefore necessary that you attend exclusively the traditional Latin Mass, and avoid the New Mass, the reformed sacraments, as well as any Masses which are offered in union with the Vatican II hierarchy. We also invite you to take our booklet entitled The Traditional Latin Mass, which is very informative.

DRESS CODE

For men: Jacket and tie on Sundays and holydays of obligation. No earrings. No shorts. For ladies: A dress or skirt is required; no pants or shorts. The skirt must at least cover the knee, and should not be tight or otherwise revealing in any way. Immodest slits are forbidden. Clothing should be loose and not form-fitting. A head covering is also required. See-through blouses are forbidden, as well as clothing which is low-cut either in front or in back. For everyone: No tennis shoes, sandals, clogs, thongs, denim, even on weekdays. No piercings. Clothing with writing on it (e.g., sweatshirts or jackets) is also forbidden. The standards of Catholic modesty must be observed. Anyone in tight, pro-vocative, or otherwise revealing attire will not be permitted to enter the church.

 - Starting next week, the Mass times will change to 8:00 and 10:00 A.M. This is to try to spread out the attendance between the two Masses. Presently the 9:00 A.M. Mass is overcrowded, and the 10:30 is very sparsely attended.
 - February 1st is First Friday. Distribution of Holy Communion at 8:00 P.M., followed by devotions. All-night adoration has been canceled owing to lack of sufficient adorers.
 - Blessing of articles next week. Those who have many articles to bless should come to the second Mass, as there is little time between the two Masses.

ANYONE WHO ADHERES TO THE DOCTRINES OF FR. FEENEY IS BARRED FROM RECEIVING THE SACRAMENTS IN THIS CHAPEL. In the 1940's, Fr. Leonard Feeney S.J. promoted the heresy that there was no such thing as baptism of blood or baptism of desire. Fr. Feeney's teaching is contrary to the universal ordinary magisterium of the Catholic Church. It was condemned in 1949 by the Holy Office. All Catholics are bound under pain of mortal sin to give assent to the teachings of the Holy Office. A number of lay Catholics mistakenly adhere to this heresy, falsely thinking that it is the teaching of the Catholic Church.

WISDOM OF THE SAINTS

Everything we do derives its value from our conformity to the will of God. Hence even eating, if done because such is the will of God, is more meritorious than death would be without that intention. Fix this principle firmly in your mind, and in your every action keep it before your eyes.

Thus you will do your work with perfection.

—St. Francis de Sales

If it seems to you that you have not yet suffered any tribulations, rest assured that you have not yet begun to be a true servant of God, because St. Paul clearly states that all those who wish to live piously in Christ will suffer persecution.

—St. Augustine

There is no more evident mark of a man's being a saint and of the number of the elect than to behold him of a devout life and at the same time exercised with desolations, sufferings, and tribulations.

—St. Aloysius Gonzaga

THE PROCESS OF GALILEO

TAKEN FROM CHRISTIAN APOLOGETICS BY REV. W. DEVIVIER S.J. (1924)

The condemnation of Galileo is also a weapon frequently employed by the enemies of the Church. It is because, in their eyes, this condemnation disproves at the same time the infallibility of the Pope, and demonstrates the opposition of the Church to the progress of science. Let us see if these accusations are well founded.

HISTORICAL NOTICE. Galileo (A.D. 1564-1642), a learned astronomer and distinguished philosopher, born at Pisa, but by his residence belonging to Florence, adopted, at the beginning of the seventeenth century, the opinion of Copernicus (A.D. 1473-1543), a Canon of the Church, who taught the immobility of the sun and the rotation of the earth. Whilst Copernicus could teach this theory without being molested, Galileo was, on the 24th of February, 1616, attainted by the censure of the Holy Office. No book of Galileo was condemned, but the doctrine of Copernicus which he was defending, as to the diurnal motion of the earth on its axis and the immobility of the sun, was declared false in philosophy, contrary to Holy Writ and formally heretical. However, this censure was a secret act, and compromised only the Consulters of the Roman Congregation, for whose decision no infallibility was ever claimed. Accordingly no discussion arose concerning this view of the censure. The following Thursday, on the report of the Cardinals of the Holy Office, the Pope ordered that this censure should be notified to Galileo and that he be forbidden to teach the doctrine of the motion of the earth. The order, however, does not contain a single word of Paul V, by which this doctrine is characterized; moreover, we must remark, this is a secret document, having nothing in common with an ex cathedra definition. Then came a decree of the Index, dated the 5th of March 1616, which prohibited books written in favor of the Copernican system. As to Galileo, he was never subjected to any corporal penance. He continued to reside in his villa near Florence, enjoying the friendship and favors of Urban VIII. Finally, in 1633, judgement was rendered condemning Galileo to retract the teaching which was then judged to be erroneous. It establishes simply the guilt of Galileo, and fixes spiritual penalties, which he was to undergo. The decree of 1616 is only recalled as a historical fact. "The Sacred Congregation of the Index," it states, "has rendered a decree wherein books maintaining this doctrine are prohibited and the doctrine itself is declared false and contrary to the Sacred Scriptures." There is here no trace of a public and official intervention of the Sovereign Pontiff in his capacity as Supreme Pastor, either in the pronouncing of heresy against the Copernican system, or in the examination and condemnation of Galileo.
