

ANYONE WHO ADHERES TO THE DOCTRINES OF FR. FEENEY IS BARRED FROM RECEIVING THE SACRAMENTS IN THIS CHAPEL. In the 1940's, Fr. Leonard Feeney S.J. promoted the heresy that there was no such thing as baptism of blood or baptism of desire. Fr. Feeney's teaching is contrary to the universal ordinary magisterium of the Catholic Church. It was condemned in 1949 by the Holy Office. All Catholics are bound under pain of mortal sin to give assent to the teachings of the Holy Office. A number of lay Catholics mistakenly adhere to this heresy, falsely thinking that it is the teaching of the Catholic Church.

WISDOM OF THE SAINTS

I have many distractions, but as soon as I am aware of them, I pray for those people the thought of whom is diverting my attention. In this way, they reap the benefit of my distractions.

— St. Theresa of Lisieux

✠ ✠ ✠

This is a Friend who will not terrify you, who will not abandon you. Hope in Him, and Heaven is yours!

— St. Joseph Cafasso

Of all the counsels of Christ, one of the greatest, and so to say, the foundation of religion, is to fly the occasions of sin.

— St. Bernardine of Siena

MANNER OF BEHAVING IN TEMPTATIONS TO SELF-LOVE

By Saint Francis de Sales

Love of ourselves, esteem for ourselves, false freedom of spirit, are roots which cannot be easily plucked out of the human heart; but we can prevent their bearing any fruits, which are sins; as for their starts or buddings we cannot prevent them altogether, so long as we are in this life, though we can moderate their dimensions by the practice of contrary virtues, especially by the love of God.

We must then have patience, and little by little retrench our evil habits, overcome our inclinations, and subdue our aversions; for, in a word, this life is an emotional warfare, and who is he that can say, "I am not attacked?"

Repose is reserved for heaven, where the palm of victory awaits us. On earth we must always struggle between fear and hope, with the condition that hope shall ever be stronger, in consideration of the omnipotence of Him who helps us.

Self-love never dies but when we die; it has a thousand means of concealment in our soul, so that we cannot dislodge it. It is the eldest-born of the soul; it is natural to us. It heads a battalion of rifles, with dreadful mutinies, stratagems, passions. Nothing can be more adroit; it has a thousand quick developments.

We must always expect either its open attacks or its secret influences so long as we are in this land of exile; it suffices that we do not yield to it with a full, steady, deliberate consent. The virtue of holy indifference is so excellent that our old man, or human nature, according to its natural faculties, was not capable of it.

Little surprises of passion are unavoidable in this mortal life, on which account the great Apostle cries to heaven: Alas! poor wretch that I am! I feel two different men within me, the old and the new; two laws the law of the senses, and the law of the spirit; two operations, that of nature and that of grace Who will deliver me from the body of this death?

A NOTE TO NEWCOMERS

WELCOME TO THE TRADITIONAL LATIN MASS, and to the unchanged Catholic Faith. The priests and parishioners of Most Holy Trinity Seminary reject the changes of Vatican II. They want to preserve the Roman Catholic Faith by maintaining everything which was taught and done by the Church prior to Vatican II. In order to receive the sacraments here, it is therefore necessary that you attend exclusively the traditional Latin Mass, and avoid the New Mass, the reformed sacraments, as well as any Masses which are offered in union with the Vatican II hierarchy. We also invite you to take our booklet entitled The Traditional Latin Mass, which is very informative.
