

ANYONE WHO ADHERES TO THE DOCTRINES OF FR. FEENEY IS BARRED FROM RECEIVING THE SACRAMENTS IN THIS CHAPEL. In the 1940's, Fr. Leonard Feeney S.J. promoted the heresy that there was no such thing as baptism of blood or baptism of desire. Fr. Feeney's teaching is contrary to the universal ordinary magisterium of the Catholic Church. It was condemned in 1949 by the Holy Office. All Catholics are bound under pain of mortal sin to give assent to the teachings of the Holy Office. A number of lay Catholics mistakenly adhere to this heresy, falsely thinking that it is the teaching of the Catholic Church.

WISDOM OF THE SAINTS

✠ ✠ ✠

What a weakness it is to love Jesus Christ only when He caresses us, and to be cold immediately when He afflicts us. This is not true love. Those who love thus, love themselves too much to love God with all their hearts.

— Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque

✠ ✠ ✠

He who wishes to love God does not truly love Him if he has not an ardent and constant desire to suffer for His sake.

— Saint Aloysius Gonzaga

✠ ✠ ✠

What do you possess if you possess not God?

— Saint Augustine

NON-CATHOLIC VIEW OF THE FUNCTIONS OF THE STATE REGARDING RELIGION AND MORALS

[from The Framework of a Christian State, by Rev. E. Cahill, S.J., 1932]

Non-Christian philosophers and jurists of different schools generally deny that the State has any function in regard to religion or morals. This view is held by the Liberals and Socialists, who maintain that the "state is Atheistic," or at least has no functions in regard to man's duties towards God, or towards the moral law, except in so far as the intervention of public authority may be needed for the preservation of peace and public order. Hence they will not, so far as their influence prevails, admit any public manifestation of religion in official and civil life. Under this heading they include even the public schools from which, therefore, religion is banished. Moreover, as the moral law rests essentially upon man's relations to God, that, too, is practically disregarded. As a result of this policy the government, the politics, and the international relations of modern states have become in large measure confessedly utilitarian; and if diplomatists or statesmen do sometimes offer lip service to the moral law and the claims of right and justice, these professions are mostly regarded, and too often with good reason, as insincere. This policy is also largely accountable for the widespread immorality, irreligion, and unrest, as well as for the material misery of the people. The principles of which we speak permeate more or less the laws and administrative policy of the dominions of the British Empire; and are formally sponsored by most English and Anglo-Irish non-Catholic newspapers and reviews. Even Catholic writers and publishers too often show signs of being under their influence.

A NOTE TO NEWCOMERS

WELCOME TO THE TRADITIONAL LATIN MASS, and to the unchanged Catholic Faith. The priests and parishioners of Most Holy Trinity Seminary reject the changes of Vatican II. They want to preserve the Roman Catholic Faith by maintaining everything which was taught and done by the Church prior to Vatican II. In order to receive the sacraments here, it is therefore necessary that you attend exclusively the traditional Latin Mass, and avoid the New Mass, the reformed sacraments, as well as any Masses which are offered in union with the Vatican II hierarchy. We also invite you to take our booklet entitled The Traditional Latin Mass, which is very informative.
