

ANYONE WHO ADHERES TO THE DOCTRINES OF FR. FEENEY IS BARRED FROM RECEIVING THE SACRAMENTS IN THIS CHAPEL. In the 1940's, Fr. Leonard Feeney S.J. promoted the heresy that there was no such thing as baptism of blood or baptism of desire. Fr. Feeney's teaching is contrary to the universal ordinary magisterium of the Catholic Church. It was condemned in 1949 by the Holy Office. All Catholics are bound under pain of mortal sin to give assent to the teachings of the Holy Office. A number of lay Catholics mistakenly adhere to this heresy, falsely thinking that it is the teaching of the Catholic Church.

WISDOM OF THE SAINTS

The dogs do not attack those of the household, but only strangers, thus the devil does not assault those much who are already his. If therefore he seeks one, it is a sign that he does not belong to him yet, and the greater the virtue of the person is, the more vehement assaults he may expect from the devil.

— Saint Francis de Sales

✠ ✠ ✠

The roaring of the lion does not drive away wild beasts as much as prayer does the evil spirits.

— St. John Chrysostom

The power of Christ is so great that the evil spirits sink back into nothingness before it, and cannot even stand before the invocation of the name of Jesus.

— St. Athanasius

WHY JESUS FASTED IN THE DESERT FOR FORTY DAYS

[From The Pulpit Orator, by Rev. John Zollner, 1881]

Jesus fasted,

(a) In order to atone for the sin of our first parents. They had gratified their desire of eating, in a most sinful manner by eating the forbidden fruit. By this sin they lost for themselves and their posterity the love of God and His grace, and plunged themselves into the greatest misery. Jesus repaired this sin by His fasting. St. Augustine says: "As the first Adam had fortified the prerogative of immortality by the intemperance of the palate, so the second Adam should recover immortality by abstinence."

(b) To teach us that we should make use of fasting as a means of penance. Fasting is a means of penance in a double relation, first, it obtains the grace from God, that He withholds His punishments, and it inclines Him to pardon us. Witness the Ninevites — Jonas 3: 5, etc. Secondly, it redeems the temporal punishments of sin, for which we would be obliged to suffer in purgatory. Like all other good works, fasting with prayer and alms has this effect.

(c) To show by His example that fasting is a principal means of guarding against sin. Fasting is an assistant of the soul, it helps to tame the flesh. As the rider guides his steed by means of a bridle, so the Christian, his sensuality by fasting, and subjects it to the law of God. Hence Saint Cyprian says: "Fasting tames all rebellion of the flesh, breaks the tyranny of the palate, and adorns man. It confines the inordinate motions in a grave, divides and binds the extravagant desires, and, united with humility, teaches the servants of God to despise all worldly goods."
