

ANYONE WHO ADHERES TO THE DOCTRINES OF FR. FEENEY IS BARRED FROM RECEIVING THE SACRAMENTS IN THIS CHAPEL. In the 1940's, Fr. Leonard Feeney S.J. promoted the heresy that there was no such thing as baptism of blood or baptism of desire. Fr. Feeney's teaching is contrary to the universal ordinary magisterium of the Catholic Church. It was condemned in 1949 by the Holy Office. All Catholics are bound under pain of mortal sin to give assent to the teachings of the Holy Office. A number of lay Catholics mistakenly adhere to this heresy, falsely thinking that it is the teaching of the Catholic Church.

WISDOM OF THE SAINTS

We must suffer in order to go to God. We forget this truth far too often.

— Saint Madeleine Sophie Barat

That man is truly humble who converts humiliation into humility.

— Saint Bernard of Clairvaux

Most certainly God will not condemn those sinners who have recourse to Mary, and for whom she prays, since He Himself commended them to her as her children.

— Saint Alphonsus Liguori

THE MIRACLE OF THE SPREAD OF THE GOSPEL IN ANCIENT TIMES

[From De Revelatione by Rev. Garrigou-Lagrange, O.P.]

At the beginning of the third century, Tertullian writes: "We are of yesterday, and we fill all your things: your cities, your islands, your fortresses, your municipalities, your places of assembly, the military camps, the tribes, the law courts, the palace, the Senate, the Forum. The only things that are left to you are your temples." Some declared that nearly the majority of Carthage was Christian. Pagan witnesses, such as Tacitus and Pliny the Younger, speak of the large multitude of Christians. Pliny the Younger was the pro-practor in Bithynia, and there he found innumerable Christians. For this reason, as even the rationalist Harnack admits, toward the beginning of the fourth century, Christianity was prevalent in Asia Minor, Thrace, Cyprus, and the territory of Odessa. It was also established in Syria, Egypt, in southern and central Italy, Spain, Greece, and southern Gaul.

The religion of Christ was spread into all classes of society. Most Christians were from the common people. This verifies the prophecy, "the poor shall have the gospel preached to them." In this aspect Christianity differs from Greek philosophy, which attracted only the prideful. For this reason, it is even more remarkable that even the rich and the wise were converted to Christianity. Furthermore, among the early Christians we find rich people. Among these are Sergius Paulus, the pro-consul, Dionysius the Areopagite, Titus Flavius Clemens and his family, and many who were of the house of Caesar. St. Cyprian says that at the time of Valerian, there were quite a few Christians among the family of the Emperor, as well as among centurions and tribunes. From these things it is inferred that Christianity in the first three centuries spread very quickly in the whole Roman Empire, and even outside the limits of the Empire, and spread into all of the orders of society. Mithraism, which was confined practically exclusively to the soldiers, and spread only into a few regions of the Empire.

A NOTE TO NEWCOMERS

WELCOME TO THE TRADITIONAL LATIN MASS, and to the unchanged Catholic Faith. The priests and parishioners of Most Holy Trinity Seminary reject the changes of Vatican II. They want to preserve the Roman Catholic Faith by maintaining everything which was taught and done by the Church prior to Vatican II. In order to receive the sacraments here, it is therefore necessary that you attend exclusively the traditional Latin Mass, and avoid the New Mass, the reformed sacraments, as well as any Masses which are offered in union with the Vatican II hierarchy. We also invite you to take our booklet entitled The Traditional Latin
